 - a. $85 for the whole weekend
 - b. $120 for non-members
 - c. $65 for students
 - d. Friday night only = $35
 - e. Saturday night only = $65
- Topics will be Unpacking Sexuality: Bringing Unconscious Bias to the Forefront and Sexual Healthcare Interpreting
- No distance option as presenter prefers interactive workshop
- Kristy and Shannon will work on CEU information

Money from Idaho Legislature

- The CDHH money is likely to get approved, will be $8000 annually
 - o Steven recommended use for Software or technology needs
 - o Intended for rural interpreters – webinars, educational interpreter sites, broadcast around state, or recorded?
 - o Board will think on this one some more and discuss more in the future once funding is approved

Future Conferences

- The Board has decided to not host a conference this year
 - o Instead will possibly partner with IAD for their August conference and offer smaller trainings throughout the state
 - Currently what the partnership with IAD would look like is unclear- more information is needed to make a decision
 - Next workshop in Boise in March, will try and do something later in N Idaho and Eastern Idaho

- Talked about the possibility of Idaho being site for 2020 Region V conference – Kristy will email RVPC to let them know we’re interested; would be nice if coincided with Signing Shakespeare

Website Update

- 1 year of Wild Apricot purchased
- CSI student is working with their professor to design the website

Annual Business meeting

- Based on a survey sent a few months ago, members voted not to change current membership categories
- We are required to have a business meeting once a year
 - Will hold a business meeting at the Boise workshop in March during lunch
 - Will have a zoom option and electronic voting option for meeting
- Seeking nominations for Vice President and Treasurer
 - Fran will run again
 - Dawn and Michelle possible good candidates for VP; Dawn asked what job entailed
