Peer Power! A Framework for Providing Peer Interpreter Support

Presented in English, interpreters provided

Only we as colleagues understand the challenges we experience as professional interpreters. We need each other! Explore the literature on collegiality, reflect on experiences with peers and your needs as interpreters, and expectations of other interpreters when working together.

Michelle Draper is a native of West Jordan Utah. She has been professionally interpreting since 2002. She has a Master's degree from the University of North Florida in Interpreting Pedagogy, a Bachelor's degree from Utah State University in Mathematics and Statistics Education, and an Associate Degree from Salt Lake Community in ASL/English Interpreting. Michelle holds the following RID certifications NIC, SC:L, ED:K-12 and Utah Professional. Michelle has worked in various settings including post-secondary, medical, vocational rehabilitation, courts, and video relay to name a few. Michelle has been teaching and mentoring since 2007. She has been involved with the Salt Lake Community College Fast Track program, Utah Interpreter ICAN Program, VRS Interpreting Institute School-to-Work, Pathways and Deaf Interpreter Academy Programs, Northstar Mentorship Project, and USU IMET program. Her current full-time employment is working for Sorenson Communications as a corporate staff interpreter. Michelle loves everything about interpreting! Her greatest accomplishment, however, is being a wife and mother of 3 children.
